

Praying for President Barack Obama

*First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
(1 Timothy 2:1-4)*

1. Pray that President Obama would have understanding to discern between good and evil.
2. Pray that the Bible and the teachings of Christ would characterize President Obama's policies.
3. Pray that President Obama's marriage would be kept a priority even in the midst of daily demands.
4. Pray that President Obama would be a friend to those who honor Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.
5. Pray that President Obama and other leaders in Washington would uphold the sacredness of marriage as a covenant only between a man and a woman.
6. Pray that President Obama would lead the way in protecting and upholding the value of the unborn, newborn, elderly, and those who are unable to care for themselves.
7. Pray that President Obama's administration will respect the place of Judeo-Christian values in our society.
8. Pray that President Obama would have perseverance in leading the effort to defeat terrorism around the world.
9. Pray that the presidential family—Barack, Michelle, Malia, and Sasha Obama—would model lives of integrity, purity, and humility in the midst of high visibility.
10. Pray that President Obama would promote laws that enable God's people to lead quiet and peaceful lives in godliness and honesty.
11. Pray that President Obama would be surrounded by wise, biblical counselors who have an understanding of the times.
12. Pray for physical, mental, and emotional strength and courage as President Obama seeks to serve our country as a steward of God's authority.
13. Pray for physical protection for President Obama's family and administration.
14. Pray that President Obama would make decisions that would allow Christ's church in America to flourish.

15. Pray that President Obama would enact policies and legislation that protect the family, encourage parents, and uphold a biblical standard of righteousness.
16. Pray that President Obama would daily seek the God of heaven, and that he would exemplify true meekness and humility while addressing crucial issues.
17. Pray that President Obama would follow attempts to significantly curtail pornography and the sex trade.
18. Pray that God would clothe President Obama with wisdom and discernment to lead righteously.
19. Pray that President Obama's administration would be men and women of integrity in both their private and public lives.
20. Pray that the Lord would close the mouths of those who oppose righteousness.
21. Pray that President Obama would have wisdom and discernment on how to apply Scripture to our government's fiscal policies.
22. Pray that the presidential family would avail themselves of the Lord's help in facing each day's challenges.
23. Pray that President Obama would be accountable to men who are morally upright in order to prevent any downfall due to pride or moral weakness.
24. Pray that President Obama would not allow his deep desire for unity to supersede his desire to do what is right according to God's Word.
25. Pray that God would unite the nation behind President Obama in any decisions that honor God.
26. Pray that President Obama would establish protective hedges in areas of vulnerability to temptation.
27. Pray that President Obama would wisely handle the issues of the Middle East.
28. Pray that God would prompt President Obama to disarm all influences that seek to undermine godly principles.
29. Pray that President Obama will seek the heart of God for any potential Supreme Court justices and federal court judges.
30. Pray that President Obama will set aside regular times to rest and to focus on God and His Word, as well as his family.
31. Pray that our nation will turn to God, respect and pray for our president, and elect state and local leaders who will govern righteously.
