Global Outreach Prayer Update

Enfoque de Misiones

Dave Lunsford - BNN Representative

The down side about posting a picture of Sue out and about is people will think she is "better". In reality she is up and down which is to be expected. This week she got two units of red blood cells, after which she will feel very good! Next week she starts the third cycle of chemo (5 days on, two weeks off). We are praising the Lord for providing excellent medical insurance and the ability to keep it through Sue's working a little and the donation of sick-leave by her coworkers. We will not have a progress report on the level of cancer until after a few more rounds of chemo.

We are glad to welcome Andrew Eddy as a missionary pastoral intern to work with Tony Sanchez in Grandview. Andrew is the son of the pastor of Tony's sending church, Manchester Bible in Manchester, WA. and is a seminary graduate who has done a number of short term ministries at Grandview in years past. He is just now getting settled in and beginning to watch and learn and see how God would use him in the establishing of Iglesia Del Pueblo. Along with the Sanchez family.

We are happy to welcome Pastor Kiyle Decker to the First Baptist Church of Ferndale. Kiyle and Anissa began their ministry life in the NW then moved to California for a good number of years. We rejoice with FBC Ferndale in finding God's man to lead them in their next era of ministry.

Brief prayer notes:

- The Council of 15 (BNN) will have their 2nd meeting of the year in Apr.
- The "Refine" spring ministry conference will be held at Meridian, Idaho on April 19- 21.
- The following churches are seeking a senior pastor, Sleater-Kinney Rd Baptist in Olympia, WA., Lakeview Bible in Republic, WA., FBC in Burbank, WA., FBC in E. Wenatchee, WA.,
- FBC University Place and Temple Baptist of Fircrest, have begun discussing the possibility of a merger.
